

SEND

Welcome to the Summer issue of the SEND Newsletter, 2023

Following the newsletter survey in 2022, “FIND” becomes “SEND” from this issue, as suggested by our readers. The new name better reflects what the newsletter is about, and we hope it will be easier for families new to the world of SEND to discover.

5th – 11th June is Carers’ Week, the annual campaign to raise awareness of the challenges that unpaid carers face and the contribution they make to their families and communities. Details of activities taking place for Carers’ Week, plus local support groups for parent carers, can be found inside.

We also have details of lots of local activities and groups for children and young people with SEND. If you know of any other inclusive clubs or groups, or a really good, accessible day out that you would recommend to others, please get in touch and we can include them in a future issue.

Finally, Fathers’ Day is on Sunday 18th June this year – we hope you all have a great day!

If you or a member of your family would like to write an article for a future issue of SEND, we would love to hear from you. Please contact us at FIND@lancashire.gov.uk

Thank you for your continued support

INCLUSION AT INSPIRE

Every Sunday 2:30pm - 5:30pm

Exclusively for young people with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities, Inspire Youth Zone offers a range of opportunities and sessions to ensure young people are able to get the most out of the time they spend with us.

- Our inclusion team are dedicated to providing support for all young people with a disability up to the age of 25.
- The team make sure that each and every young person who attends the youth zone can get involved in the activities they want to, regardless of their abilities and have access to progression opportunities, trips, clubs and projects.
- We understand that some young people will have more specific needs to enable them to be able to access the same opportunities as others. Work with an Engagement Worker to develop bespoke activity plans based wherever possible, on their areas of interest.
- Be able to bring their Personal Assistant onto session with them in line with our PA policy, to help with any personal care or 1:1 needs.

You can use your Breaktime hours here too!

Inspire is a Lancashire Breaktime provider and receives funding from Lancashire County Council when parents/carers choose to use their breaktime allocation with us. This is very important for the sustainability of Inspire and we want to encourage parents/carers to utilise their breaktime funding wherever possible.

Lancashire Short Breaks Service

Break Time

Break Time provides fun group activities to children and young people aged 4-18, living in Lancashire, who have a special educational need and/or disability (SEND). Activities take place after school, at weekends and during school holidays and give parents and carers a short break from their caring role.

Registrations

Registrations for Break Time took place in January and February this year. Since then, a large number of families have been in touch who had missed the deadline. In response, we were able to reopen the registration form on 15th May, to allow a further opportunity to apply.

The number of Break Time places is limited, so the form will close at midnight on Friday 2nd June and no further applications will be accepted for the current year (April 2023 to March 2024).

Registrations are processed in the order they are submitted and parents will receive a letter in the post over the coming weeks, to confirm the outcome.

All Break Time members must re-register annually if they wish to continue their membership.

Registrations for 2024/25, for both existing and new members, are expected to open in October 2023. Details will be shared closer to the time, on the Local offer website and facebook page, in this newsletter and through nurseries, schools and colleges.

Break Time Providers

Since January, we have introduced a number of new providers, giving more choice to families that use the service. There are now 41 Break Time provisions across the whole of Lancashire, delivered by 22 individual providers.

We are still working to expand the range of activities available to your children and young people. If you know of an organisation that may be able to deliver Break Time activities, please ask them to contact the Short Breaks Team – details below.

We are also working with our Break Time providers to support children that have additional medical, personal care or other needs, helping to make Break Time activities even more inclusive.

Other opportunities

Break Time activities provide valuable support to families in Lancashire, however there are other clubs and groups also available for children and young people with SEND. These include before and after school clubs, holiday play schemes, Early Years groups and the weekly Colourful Voices and SEND Youth Groups that are delivered across Lancashire.

The Council also provides free activity sessions during the summer holidays, through the Holiday Activity and Food (HAF) Programme. Whilst HAF is delivered for all children in receipt of benefits-related free school meals, places are also available for children with special education needs and disabilities who are not receiving free school meals. More information on HAF can be found at: www.lancashire.gov.uk/children-education-families/school-holiday-activities

Full information on Break Time, including how to register your child, can be found on the Local Offer at: www.lancashire.gov.uk/children-education-families/special-educational-needs-and-disabilities/things-to-do/break-time
Contact the Short Breaks Team at cyp-shortbreaks@lancashire.gov.uk
Or call us on 01772 538077

If you feel your child needs more support than Break Time provides, you can request a Child & Family assessment, so we can fully understand and identify the best way to meet their needs. Call 0300 123 6720 to request an assessment.

Break Time Plus

Break Time Plus enables children and young people who receive a social care package of support following an assessment, or who are in the care of Lancashire County Council or another local authority, to access group activities as part of their package of care.

You do not need to register for Break Time Plus – speak to your child's social worker or allocated worker, or visit the Local Offer page: www.lancashire.gov.uk/children-education-families/special-educational-needs-and-disabilities/things-to-do/break-time-plus

5-11 June 2023

We're pleased to announce that this year Carers Week will be taking place from 5-11 June 2023, with charities, organisations and individuals getting together to show support for the millions of unpaid carers in the UK - and to spread the word about the challenges they face throughout the year and what needs to be done to improve their daily lives.

Carers Week is an annual campaign to raise awareness of caring and help people who don't think of themselves as having caring responsibilities to identify as carers and access much-needed support.

The campaign is brought to life by thousands of individuals and organisations who come together to provide support for carers, run activities and highlight the vital role carers play in our communities.

The theme for Carers Week 2023 is 'Recognising and supporting carers in the community'.

This Carers Week, we want communities across the UK to come together to recognise the huge contribution unpaid carers make to society. Politicians, employers, health and social services, businesses, education providers and members of the public all have a role to play in raising awareness of caring and making sure carers are able to access the information and support they need.

Carer [noun]

[1] Cares (unpaid) for family or friends who have a disability, illness or who need support in later life:
Washing them. And their laundry. And their dishes.
Keeping appointments. And records. And tempers.
Giving medicine. And time. And hugs.
Filling forms. And fridges. And silences.
Dealing with doctors. And nurses. And pharmacists.
And social workers. And benefits agencies.
And care workers. And a lack of sleep.

[2] Needs support to manage a life of their own.

Lancashire Parent Carer Forum – Update

Developing the Parent Carer Forum

Between October and the end of March, the Parent Carer Forum have been working with a Contact Associate, Maureen Morris, to develop the reach and sustainability of the Forum after COVID19.

We have doubled our membership and recruited more parent carers to work with us.

To join our membership database, go to our website:

<https://www.lancashireparentcarerforum.org.uk>

and sign up for information and opportunities to help shape services.

National NNPCF / Contact Conference 2023

At the end of February, Lancashire parent carers were represented at the annual National Conference of the National Network of Parent Carers and Contact by two representatives. Here, our Chair, Sam Jones, is discussing what should be ordinarily available across the country for children and young people with additional needs, with MP Claire Coutinho,

Parliamentary Under Secretary of State (Minister for Children, Families and Wellbeing). The Minister's responsibilities include:

SEND including high needs funding, Alternative provision, Children's social care, Children in care, children in need and child protection, Adoption and care leavers, Early years and childcare, Family hubs and early childhood support, disadvantaged and vulnerable children, Children and young people's mental health.

LPCF Annual Event

In March, the Parent Carer Forum held an Annual Event, which was well attended and we recruited nine more parent carers to work with us and council and health practitioners to help shape services for our children, young people and families.

Local SEND Events

We are continuing to work with SEND IAS and other agencies and practitioners from across the SEND Partnership to bring Local SEND events to each district in Lancashire. Watch out for one in your area. We would love to see you there! For information see our Facebook page, Lancashire Parent Carer Forum.

Many children or young people find they are the only deaf child or young person in their school and at Sign Hi Say Hi! they are with other young deaf people.

We also occasionally run life-skills workshops for deaf young people. We also offer new parents whose children have just been identified as deaf informal parent to parent support.

About Us

Sign Hi Say Hi! is a group of local families with deaf/hearing impaired children & young people. It is a charity run by parents and grandparents/carers with deaf children. We run a Club for deaf/hearing impaired children/young people, their families, siblings, parents, carers and friends. Sign Hi Say Hi! is affiliated to the National Deaf Children's Society (NDCS). All deaf and young people are welcome from birth to young adults whether they choose to communicate by speech/BSL/sign supported English etc.

Deaf children/young people meet, take part in activities such as sport, craft, workshops and simply be together. Parents /carers can have a coffee and socialise with other families or can book their child in beforehand and collect their child later. If you have a younger child or baby you are welcome just to drop in for a chat for 20 minutes or so.

The Club meets term time – most events are held Tuesday evenings 6.00pm to 8.00pm and occasionally events are held at the weekend – we try and vary where we meet up and have a range of activities to appeal to different ages. If you don't want to come to the Club but would like a committee member to call you please ring 07437 335655 or email signhisayhi@ndcsgroup.org.uk

Membership

We receive no local or government funding and rely on attracting grants and donations to run the Club. so we have to charge for membership (£5.00 per family a year).

Child Protection

Sign Hi Says Hi! takes Child Protection very seriously and has Child Protection Policies and Procedures in place. We also have a designated Child Protection Officer.

Transition phases

When preparing your child or young person for transition from nursery to primary school, primary school to high school and from high school to post sixteen or further education it is important to make sure that things go smoothly so whatever the phase it is important to start planning early. You know what your child's needs and anxieties are better than anyone else.

Nursery to primary school

The transition to school from nursery can be a stressful time for children, not to mention for parents too. Here are some suggestions to help your child be 'school ready' and to make this transition a smooth, happy, and effective one. Keep child focused.

- Build a good relationship with the school staff
- Visits to school. This will increase your child's confidence. Ask the Head Teacher or SENCO how this will be provided.
- Create a book of photos of key areas and people in school e.g., the classroom, cloakroom and toilets, class teacher, teaching assistant and dinner lady if possible.
- Create a school role play area at home
- Read books on 'going to school' or create your own social situation stories. Your local library will be able to help you source some of these.
- Talk about the change as a good thing
- Develop your child's independence with things like toileting, hand washing, dressing and eating

Primary school to high school

Year 6

Before your child starts at their new school extra visits can be arranged by liaising with the SENCO and Transitions Officer. This can help your child gain familiarity with their new school. It might be possible for a familiar adult to go with them on the first visit and you can ask that a fellow classmate going to the same school be placed in the same class.

Your child's information should be passed by primary school to the secondary school and all teaching staff should be made aware of your child's needs. Talk to the SENCO to find out how this will be done.

Year 7

Schools encourage independence but some children can have support initially through a buddy system to help them get from one lesson to the next without getting lost.

Lunch and break time clubs can be a refuge if your child doesn't like to be on a noisy and crowded playground. Is there somewhere quiet they can go if they need time to calm down? Do school give time out if needed.

Homework can be one of the most difficult things to cope with initially. Will your child need help writing their homework instructions down? Homework is usually given out at the end of the lessons and as the children are eager to move on to the next lesson or more importantly lunch time it might get missed. Maybe your child can have some help to write it in their planner, could it be given out halfway through the lesson instead or emailed so that you can keep track of it. If your child has problems with homework, ask if there is a homework club where help is available during or after school time.

High school to post 16 provision

There are several options for young people for post 16 opportunities

To stay in full-time education – Your child could take a range of subjects that lead to qualifications that keep their options open, like GCSEs or A levels. Courses like T Levels or BTEC allow them to focus on a chosen career area like construction, healthcare, science or digital careers. Some careers may require specific qualifications, so help your child to do some research into where the course they are interested in might lead.

- A levels
- T Levels
- Technical and vocational qualifications
- Applied qualifications
- Exam retakes

Combine work and study and gain practical skills, get work experience and a qualification that employers are looking for.

- Traineeships
- Supported internships
- Apprenticeships
- School leaver schemes

If your child has an EHCP it is important that planning for post 16 transition starts early. The year 9 review should be the starting point for discussion about their aspirations. See our factsheets entitled Post 16 and Preparing for Adulthood

The Kentown Children's Palliative Care Programme was launched in November 2022. This is a community focused children's palliative care initiative in North West England covering Lancashire and South Cumbria. Aiming to reach the growing numbers of children and young people with life-limiting conditions in the region and to ensure that every family gets the right care and support, care is designed and delivered around the unique needs of every family.

Together for seriously ill children and their families

The Kentown Children's Palliative Care Programme is a collaborative programme between Together for Short Lives, The Kentown Wizard Foundation and Rainbow Trust Children's Charity. There are now 4 palliative care specialist nurses, 2 Rainbow Trust support workers and 2 family service coordinators in the team. You can read more about the team on the Kentown Support website:
www.kentownsupport.org.uk

The programme is busy with the team accepting referrals from across the region and working with other children's palliative care services, including children's hospices, to ensure that families have access to care and support and accessible information so they can make informed choices about their child's care.

Referrals can be made by any health or social care providers and families can also self refer. Any questions about the programme or about how to make a referral can be sent to enquiries@kentownsupport.org.uk

A new strategy outlining how children and young people will be supported to participate in decisions and services that affect them was launched at County Hall, Preston on the 17th February.

The Children and Young People's Participation Strategy applies to all children and young people in Lancashire and talks about best practice in terms of how they are involved in decisions that affect their own lives, all the way up to supporting how services develop strategically to benefit others in the future.

Children and Young People's Participation Strategy

The strategy has been written with children and young people and with staff who work across a variety of different services.

The Launch event was presented by young people from Lancashire Youth Council, LINX, the Children in Care Council and the Care Leaver Forum as well as POWAR, the SEND Forum for children and young people in Lancashire. It introduced a model of participation called the Lundy Model and we spent time getting creative and exploring what that model means in different circumstances and settings.

To find out more about the strategy and how children and young people could get involved in POWAR, please go to: www.lancashire.gov.uk/children-education-families/children-and-young-peoples-participation

Inspirational local charity opens new dance session in Blackburn

An inspirational local charity is excited to be launching a brand new, inclusive dance session in Blackburn town centre.

DanceSyndrome is a multi-award-winning dance charity that was founded by Jen Blackwell, who has Down's syndrome. The charity was formed because Jen found it difficult to find opportunities in community dance that were accessible to people with learning disabilities. DanceSyndrome's ethos is that disability should never be a barrier to following your dreams. All DanceSyndrome sessions are disability led, with people with learning disabilities taking visible Dance Leader roles to inspire people to see what can be achieved when we all become more inclusive.

The new weekly "Everybody Dance" session in Blackburn will open at Wesley Hall Methodist Church on Feilden Street, starting on Monday 15th May from 1pm-2pm. The session is open to everybody, regardless of age, ability or gender and will be co-led by Lucie White and Anna James.

Dance Leader, Lucie White, said "Hi everyone, my name is Lucie White, and I am looking forward to our new dance session starting in Blackburn. I will be working with Anna the Dance Artist. I love to dance as it makes me feel good. This will be my first chance to carry out a leadership session of my own since becoming a Dance Leader. I am very grateful to DanceSyndrome for giving me the opportunity to do this. I love my DanceSyndrome family and all the friends I have made. I hope we get lots of people come to this session."

Dance Artist Anna James said "I am super excited to be co-leading this brand new community Everybody Dance session in Blackburn with Lucie! I had the pleasure of working with Lucie whilst she was training to be a qualified Dance Leader and she is full of great ideas! In our Everybody Dance class we will explore moving through varying exercises and we have lots of themes planned to inspire creativity in the sessions. We are both excited to meet new people and share ideas with the groups. Co-leading with Lucie is so much fun."

DanceSyndrome have been able to open this new session as part of a £179,483 project funded by The National Lottery Community Fund. This funding supports expanding the Everybody Dance provision to make positive changes for more people with learning disabilities across the North West.

The charity will deliver weekly dance sessions, accredited dance leadership training and inspiring performances that demonstrate the power of inclusion through dance. The aim of the project is that people who participate will gain independence, confidence, better communication, and social skills and see improvements in their health and wellbeing. Through a shared love of dance, people will feel connected with their communities and become less isolated.

DanceSyndrome Managing Director Julie Nicholson said "DanceSyndrome has been working hard to build connections in the Blackburn area over the last year and we know that there is a lot of demand for a dance session that is inclusive of everyone. DanceSyndrome believes that there is beauty and significance in all movements, there is no "right" or "wrong" way to dance. We invite people of all abilities to come along a enjoy moving to music in a way that is meaningful and enjoyable for them. Everyone who take part has fun and goes away feeling better, both physically and mentally. We really believe that everybody can dance!"

Café Autisan

A local landmark, Café Autisan is a popular venue immediately at the entrance of Whalley Abbey.

Here, we provide autistic adults with training and work experience, both retail and culinary—preparing them to eventually move into employment independently.

At Café Autisan, you can learn about food hygiene, and food preparation. You can learn to take food and drink orders, use a till and interact with customers – and all with the support of our team of autism specialists.

NAS Day Opportunities

The Opportunities Centre runs every weekday, provides autistic adults with a supportive space to develop new skills, and work towards self-determined goals.

It also provides a venue for social interaction, as we offer a selection of group activities both in the Centre itself and out in the wider community.

Some of the activities we offer include:

- Arts and Crafts
- Cookery
- Baking
- Communication
- Social Eyes

Ambitious about Autism is a registered charity in England and Wales: 1063184 and a registered company: 03075255.

Supporting people who have Down's syndrome to live full and rewarding lives through accessing meaningful employment opportunities.

The Down's Syndrome Association developed the WorkFit programme to support people who have Down's syndrome to fulfil their career ambitions. We believe that everyone who has Down's syndrome can work if they want to and are supported to do so.

WorkFit Officers match candidates who have Down's syndrome with inclusive employers and support both parties at all stages of the process. WorkFit support is on-going for as long as it is needed by the candidate, their family and/or the employer.

Why get a job through WorkFit?

"My job makes me feel good and worthy. It has given me more independence. I like earning some money so that I can go out and buy things. I enjoy speaking to the customers and being part of the team."

James, Hospitality Assistant, South East

"We are so happy that Jack has a job and feels like other adults do when going out to work. Jack was listened to and included throughout the process. He is happy to go to work and looks forward to being paid and able to treat himself."

Parents of Jack, Recycling Operative, North East

Through WorkFit you can:

- Do work that interests you and fits your skills and aptitude
- Be supported in professional and personal development to understand your work options and progress your career
- Enhance your confidence and independence through learning new skills
- Meet new people, build your social networks and really feel part of a team
- Earn a wage, giving you more spending power and choices

Our candidates tell us that they feel happier and healthier since starting their jobs.

Hear what our candidates are saying...

We have many different types of opportunities across different industries so we can help you find something to suit your interests. Hear about our candidates' experiences:

How WorkFit will support you...

Our dedicated and knowledgeable team of WorkFit Officers support candidates and employers throughout the process.

As a first step, your WorkFit Officer has a discussion with you to create a Vocational profile. This records your interests, skills and career ambitions. We can also support you to create your CV.

There are a range of opportunities you could consider such as paid work, work experience placements (paid or unpaid), volunteering, supported internships or supported apprenticeships.

Your WorkFit Officer will work with an employer in your area to develop and tailor a suitable role for you. The employer will be provided with a bespoke training session and given support and advice on any reasonable adjustments to ensure that they are confident to support you in the role.

Before you start the job, you can go along to meet the potential employer and work buddies and have a tour of the workplace. When you start the job the employer will train and support you with advice from your WorkFit Officer. Your work buddy will work beside you to help you learn the tasks and get to know everyone.

Learning Disability Awareness week runs yearly to raise awareness about important issues, fighting stigma and discrimination in a hope to improve the quality of life for individuals with learning disabilities.

This year the Learning Disability Teams have taken inspiration from the Mencap theme; busting the myths about living life with a learning disability. We hope to show the incredible things that people with a learning disability achieve, and support in raising awareness of some of the stigmas that still need addressing.

Plans are on the way to make this week full of events to support with this campaign. So far our peer support workers are doing lots of work around telling their story of living life with a learning disability and their achievements. We have an online session for GP's taking place focusing on growing older with a learning disability; and features Men's Health, Cancer Screening and growing older with a presentations from local experts/GP's and our professionals from the Learning Disability Team. We also plan to reach out to children with learning disabilities, their parents and carers to share their stories and achievements.

Leading on LD Week this year in LSCFT are: Sarah Norris and Jen Yates (Community Specialist Practitioner Students)

Hello, I'd like to introduce myself to you as the new Manager of the SEND Partnership.

I'm Jenny Ashton and started in post on 1 February 2023.

I trained as a nurse and worked for the NHS for over 15 years with babies and children. After having our fourth child, I re-trained as a science teacher, gaining Qualified Teacher and Early Years Professional Status. I worked in Children's Centres delivering support to children in nurseries and reception to help them listen, follow instructions and take turns, improving confidence, self-esteem and school readiness. For the last 8 years I have worked in the Multi-Agency Safeguarding Hub advising and supporting nurseries, schools and colleges with Early Support, and Safeguarding queries.

I understand the challenges faced by families who have a child with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities, as I have lived experience being a parent of a child diagnosed with Autism, and associated anxiety and depression.

I am passionate about us working together in partnership, listening and valuing your feedback about how you find caring for a child with SEND.

Part of my role is co-chairing the Communications Priority Group with the chair of the Lancashire Parent Carer Forum Sam Jones, and we (in co-production with others) have recently updated the Working Together Strategy 2023-2025, which we would also welcome your feedback on.

I provide the conduit between all partners, including children, young people and their families and aim to ensure action is taken to implement The SEND Plan 2021-2025, supporting the management of the SEND Partnership work programme.

There are many challenges facing families who have children with SEND, and although I don't have a magic wand, I do believe that through improved understanding and communication we can work together more effectively.

Please don't hesitate to contact me at SENDpartnership@lancashire.gov.uk

Dear FIND,

After being part of the FIND since 2009, I am stepping down from my role on the Editorial Team as my daughter has now turned 18 and has moved into Adult services.

I would wholeheartedly encourage other parents to get involved in this very important group to ensure that fellow parents' voices and views are heard and represented.

Although being on an Editorial Team can sound daunting, it is actually quite fun and doesn't take up too much of your time. We only meet 'virtually' four times a year and the role is to gather information and promote services for children with disabilities and their families.

I've met many lovely people along the way and I've been involved in some exciting projects like Aiming High and also the Parent Carer Forum.

Finally I would like to thank all those who have been involved with FIND over the years and wish you all well for the future.

Best wishes, Nannette Holliday

Thank you Nannette for all your help and contributions to FIND over the years, you have been such an important part of the team. Best wishes to you and your family as you move forward in your journey.

Your Help Is Essential

We would welcome contributions from Children, Young People, Parent Carers, Voluntary and Statutory Agencies:

- Are you involved with a project or group you would like to promote
- Details of forthcoming diary dates
- Opportunities for Children and Young People with SEND
- Any ideas, views, letters, poems, etc, you would like to share
- Useful websites that you would recommend to other families

Contributions for future issues – please contact us.
